

Bullying Report 2016-17 1st Semester

Monroe Primary Bullying Occurrences for 2016-17 1st Semester:

There have been 2 bully occurrences from August to January 2017.

When bullying occurs, parents are contacted and a conference was held with the student. Training continues for students through the building wide social skills program. The teachers provide students with additional social skills training during structured class time. The classroom instruction is in combination with daily social skill tips that are shared on the announcements, along with electronic resource ideas, books, songs and games/activities that are sent to the classroom teacher to help promote a bully-free environment.

Monroe Elementary Bullying Occurrences for 2016-2017 1st Semester:

There has been 1 bully occurrence involving 1 student from August to December of 2016.

Discipline included the following:

- Detention

With the above mentioned discipline issue, parents were contacted (phone conference and in school meeting), and a conference was held with the student. Training continues weekly for all students through our Anti-Bully Program. The Anti-Bully Committee also meets monthly to help teachers with ideas and activities to use in the classroom to promote a bully-free environment.
